

Adult Sunday School Classes
April 2-May 14*TABLE TALK CLASS FOR PARENTS
Room 105*Led by Ben Dorr & Susan Sytsma Bratt

Parents of any age and stage are invited to this drop in discussion class where we examine topics related to parenting and faith.

IMAGE OF GOD SERIES
Quillin Hall*Led by various guests

In this series we will reflect on what it means to be created in the image of God and bear that image into God's world.

April 2: Rev. Danielle Shroyer

The story of Genesis 3 is often framed as the story of the fall, but what if it's simply a story about human nature, and more importantly, about God's unconditional love? Returning to an early church interpretation, Danielle will talk with us about what it means to pursue wisdom and faithfulness as those who bear the image of God and also hold the knowledge of both good and evil.

April 9: Easter Path and Intergenerational Class Experience where we will walk the final events of Holy Week to Easter.

April 16: Easter and no Sunday School

April 23: Honoring the image of God in the stranger: Northridge without Borders 5 year birthday and panel discussion looking back, and looking ahead. Special guests from the IRC and Northridge.

April 30: Dr. Warner Bailey, Old Testament Professor at Brite Divinity School at TCU: how do we read the Bible and apply it to our lives? How do we stay faithful to God's Word in changing circumstances?

May 7: Reflecting God's image in our work. Panel discussion about how our faith informs our work.

May 14: Honoring the image of God in children: presentation from Presbyterian Children's Homes and Services.
